

Kerry Consulting Group, Inc. Selected to Assist the City of San Mateo (California) with the Development of a Police Report Writing System RFQ

Pomona, CA / April 6, 2009 – The City of San Mateo, located in California, has contracted with Kerry Consulting Group, Inc. (KCG) of Pomona, California to assist in the development of a request for quotes for a police report writing system.

Like many current KCG clients, the City of San Mateo has previously contracted with KCG for consulting services. In both 2001 and 2002, the City of San Mateo contracted with KCG to assist in the development of a financial system RFP.

“San Mateo is an excellent example of how KCG sees our clients as a long term strategic, rather than financial, partners.” said Randy Langton, KCG’s Chief Operating Officer. “In San Mateo, as with our other partners, we maintained a long term strategic relationship. When it became beneficial to the City to enter into a formal engagement with us, they did.” he added.

The City of San Mateo is on a fast track for this project and expects to have a formal solicitation released in May, 2009.
